Dear Campbell Chapel,

I will be preaching and teaching on prayer. If you want to know the secret sauce of Campbell Chapel, it is our weekly, Day of Prayer. Each Thursday on Zoom, we hold prayer services at 9:00 a.m., 12:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. During Lent, we added a 6:00 a.m. prayer service. These prayer services reflect our values and priorities. As a congregation, we believe that prayer changes things.

The Bible has much to say about prayer. In Luke 18:1 we read, "Then Jesus told his disciples a parable to show them that they should always pray and not give up." This verse introduces a story about a poor widow. She was at the bottom of the socio-economic ladder. She had no influence with the high-ranking judges and officials. Yet, she was able to move her case through the system and prevail because she was persistent. Jesus compares this story to our prayer life. If persistence works in a world of unjust judges, how much more will prayer work with our loving Heavenly Father.

This story is encouraging. It reminds us that our prayers are not in vain. As we remain steadfast and persistent in prayer, we move the hand of God. In this story, the widow's pleas addressed a social injustice. We have all witnessed situations where the powers of evil have delayed justice. We have all watched political forces abuse and mistreat the poor and powerless. This story encourages us to continue to pray and believe. The arc of the moral universe is long, but it bends toward justice through our prayers.

Respectfully,

Jon R. Black

WE PRAY FOR A SINCERE RELATIONSHIP WITH THE LORD.

IN JESUS NAME, WE PRAY, AMEN.

Hello June

Prayer for June

Father Lord,

Thank you for your Guidance and protection.

Thank you for your goodness and mercies in our lives.

As we begin this new month, I pray that you lord will help us fix our hearts on you and abide in you.

Help us to let go of any kind of distraction that will interfere with our connection to you.

Teach us to love you and help us keep our focus on you. Cleanse us of our sins and help us to let go of anything that does not honor your Holy name.

Help us to live a life that is right in Christ.

Let your Holy Spirit be our guide in everything.

Let it be our reminder to always put you first no matter what.

Help us to study your word more and give us the wisdom and understanding to be able to apply your word in our lives. When things do not go as we plan, remind us that your plan for us is better than what we think we want.

Help us to grow in faith in each passing day, in Jesus' name

Amen
